in Munich for three years.

A petition to the school board calling for an election to vote on bonds to the extent of $17,000 is being circulated. The school board, we understand would be very loth to understake the erection of a school building with $12,000, even if it were voted. It is extremely doubtful if a building could be erected for that amount that would satisfy the people or meet the wants of the district for the long period for which it must necessarily answer.

which it must necessarily answer.

At its last meeting the city council compromised with Prof. P. H. Harris, paying him $500 in full of all claims on account of injuries received by reason of a defective sidewalk. We think that the Professor was very reasonable in his demands and the city is to be congratulated on getting off so cheaply. We opine that hereafter, when a sidewalk is condemned, it will be straight way attended to, and if that is done our $500 will not have been spent in Marshall Conley arrested two young men who live up on Rock creek, last Wednesday, charged with being drunk and disorderly. While waiting for the police judge the prisoners managed to get into their buggy that was standing near and started on a run out of town. They were a little too "full" to drive carefully, however, and tipped their buggy over as they were turning the corner of the square. The marshal went out and brought them back to trial, when their fines and costs amounted to $24.

The school re-opened last Monday, morning with a somewhat larger attendance than before vacation. There were 259 pupils in the several rooms Monday. Evidently both teachers and pupils feel the benefit of a week's rest. We feel in a better humor over the injury we suffered the 22d of February.

The higher grades are setting a good example to the lower. There was no absence or tardiness in the eighth or ninth last week. The ninth has not scored a tardy mark since Dec. 1st.

Mr. Wakefield and Mr. Johnson visited the schools week before last. Mr. Henderson called the same time and seemed much pleased with the dilligent effort put forth by each one to attain the highest marks.
